

Avigilon HD H.264 Firmware Release Notes

Version 2.2.0.58 – Released July 12, 2017

Issues Fixed

- Fixes critical vulnerability CVE-2017-9765. While the risk for Avigilon products installed behind a firewall or isolated network is limited, we highly recommend all users to update to this release.

Version 2.2.0.34 – Released July 25, 2014

Issues Fixed

- Added RTSP support with FFMPEG

Version 2.2.0.14 – Released December 14, 2012

New Features

- Web user interface updated

Issues Fixed

- Minor auto-focus issues resolved
- Rare potential camera time-sync issue is resolved
- ONVIF issues resolved
- Various web user interface issues resolved

Version 2.2.0.4 – Released February 27, 2012

New Features

- Added support for longer exposures for both manual and automatic modes
- Added exposure priority mode
- Added backlight compensation
- Added presets to 1.0MP-HD-H264-B1 and 2.0MP-HD-H264-B1 models
- New PTZ control permission in web interface
- Improved automatic white balance and color reproduction
- Enhanced noise filtering in low light scenes

Issues Fixed

- Potential issue with storing focus position addressed
- Potential reboot while changing compression addressed

Version 2.0.4.16 – Released November 10, 2011

New Features

- New web interface for privacy zone creation
- Event notification on settings change
-

Version 2.0.0.6 – Released August 3, 2011

New Features

- Updated day/night transition threshold on HD-H264-B1 cameras

Issues Fixed

- Potential issue from multiple reboots resolved

Version 2.0.0.2 – Released July 22, 2011

New Features

- Speaker support
- Image rotation with ACC support
- ONVIF 2.0 support

Issues Fixed

- HD-H264-B default changed to manual focus
- Improved time synchronization for audio and video